Dear Parishioners,

A few year's ago in a homily, reflecting on Mary's place in our faith, I noted how a person once said that we were "lucky" to have Mary as our Mother in faith. That term "lucky" didn't sit well with me. I noted how Frank Sinatra once crooned the words, "luck be a lady tonight." He did that in the 1940s movie "Guys and Dolls," in which the character that sings those words is a gambler who hopes that he will win a bet, because the outcome of that gamble will decide whether or not he is able to save his relationship with the girl he loves.

There is a lady whom we as Catholics love, but our relationship to her, as our Mother, was not granted by a roll of the dice or by some form of luck; rather, it was granted to us by the love of Christ. Thus, the grand and vast difference between "luck" and a blessing: Luck is just that — it is a chance happening, a flip of a coin, a role of the dice. A blessing is not luck — it is done with intention. And, so Mary's presence in our faith is not the result of a gamble or luck, but rather a certainty of God's blessings to us. And that Mother with whom we are blessed is Mary — our most Blessed Mother. We are not lucky to have our Mother in faith; we are blessed to have her.

Mary is the Mother of God — the primary title by which she is known, a title that speaks to her essential role in salvation history. But she also has many other titles: Queen of all saints, Mother and Model of the Church, Mother of Divine Grace, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Mirror of Justice, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Cause of our Joy, Gate of Heaven, and many others. Mary is also the one who we call on in prayer to "pray for us sinners; now and at the hour of our death."

Because of the profound and special role of Mary in our faith, in addition to the many titles with which she is adorned, she is also honored with many holy days every year. Each year, as we make our way through the Season of Advent, we come upon two important Marian days (holy days related to Mary). One of those days was observed this past week, namely: The Immaculate Conception (December 8) and, this coming week, on December 12, landing on this second week of Advent, is the Feast of our Our Lady of Guadalupe.

In this week column, I will focus on our Blessed Mother Mary as Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas. So, let's take a trip back in time to learn the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and see how devotion to her, and liturgical recognition of her has grown over the centuries, especially in the past 100 years.

Now, let us step into the wayback machine. Let us set the dial to the year 1531 (way back)! On December 9, 1531, in what its now Mexico, a young convert to Catholicism named Juan Diego was on his way to Mass. As he was passing a location called Tepeyac Hill, he saw a brilliant light at the peak. Much like any of us going through Camden-Wyoming in the 25MPH speed zone, Juan Diego slowed down, and looked around. He heard a woman calling him to the top of the hill; and after climbing to the peak, he saw the Blessed Virgin Mary standing amidst divine illumination.

Mary spoke to Juan Diego, identifying herself and saying,

"I am your merciful Mother, to you and to all mankind who love me and trust in me and invoke my help. Therefore, go to the dwelling of the Bishop in Mexico City and say that the Virgin Mary sent you to make known to him her great desire."

Juan Diego went to the Bishop who didn't believe his story; he asked Juan to seek a sign to bear out his claim. On December 12, Juan Diego encountered our Blessed Mother on a road near Tepeyac Hill. He asked her for a sign he could take to the Bishop. Mary told him to climb to the hilltop, pick the flowers there and bring them to her. This seemed odd to him, as no flowers bloomed at this time of the year, and certainly not on a stony summit. But more stunned than a vegetarian at a pig roast, Juan Diego did find flowers there. He cut them, put them in his tilma (cloak) and brought them to Mary who arranged them; she then sent Juan Diego to the Bishop with this sign to persuade him.

Juan Diego made the assumption that the "sign" that Mary put forth was these beautiful flowers found at a place and in a season when they shouldn't be blooming. So, he went to the Bishop, and opened his tilma to show forth the sign. The flowers fell onto the floor. But to the amazement of Juan Diego and the Bishop, the inside of the tilma now bore an intricate colored portrait of the Blessed Virgin, just as Juan Diego had previously described her. In a later apparition Mary made known that the image on that tilma was be known as "Santa Maria de Guadalupe" (or in common parlance, Our Lady of Guadalupe). Thus, on December 12, 1531, the Church confirmed Mary's first apparition in the New World. Soon thereafter, 8,000,000 natives converted to Catholicism, and from then on, the Church in Mexico thrived and grew. Today Mexico boasts a Catholic population of over 100,000,000, and is the second largest Catholic country in the world (second only to Brazil, with approximately

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

December 12 is the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. One thing that is important about Mary's appearance is that she took on the look of a Mexican peasant. What is your beloved's national heritage? How do you think Mary would look in that culture? How might she look if she appeared to you today?

Holy Cross School is blessed in any number of ways. I can only report from my perspective, but each and every single day of the five-day school week, I am blessed by the children. They touch my heart in ways that no one can conceive. Their cheerful greetings as our paths cross throughout the day, the spontaneous hugs, the conversations with our students of all ages are so important to me, the hallway displays of their work show their creativity in both written expression and artistic talent. Our teachers are a godsend to their students, their parents, their colleagues, and to me. Their dedication and rooted loyalty in our school and community is beyond admirable. Our substitute teachers are amazing in their willingness to change plans and drop everything to come in to the rescue. Especially at those times when the need is right now! Our untiring efforts of the HSA, all for the benefit of the faculty and students are a tremendous blessing.

Our school and students are also blessed in the opportunities afforded them to showcase their achievement and abilities in extra-curricular activities. I am always looking for more of those opportunities, but for now I am grateful for the parents and teachers who volunteer after-school hours for the benefit of the students. We teach our students to strive for achievement, to always give their best effort and to take pride in their work. If you have offered your level best, no one can ask for more. But, we do insist that an effort be put forth. I have watched our students in the athletic arena giving all, I have watched them work in the classroom, I have watched them devote their best to helping teachers after school, I have been blessed by our student lectors at our weekly Mass. Their clarity and outstanding skill in their delivery of the Word warms my heart. I have seen our teachers offering extra instruction after school for students who need a little extra. I have witnessed excellence. I have witnessed dedication.

As a manifestation of that excellence and dedication, three different Honor Society induction ceremonies were held in the first trimester. We have concluded our first trimester (don't ask me where that time went!) and it was during that time that middle school students were inducted into the National Junior Honor Society, the National Junior Art Honor Society, and the Tri-M Music Honor Society. They, each, lovely ceremonies held in the evening hour when proud parents, siblings and extended family might attend to celebrate achievement and talent. As you may expect, membership is not open to everyone. Qualifications must be fulfilled; chief among them is academics, along with a demonstration of aptitude. I am grateful to members of our faculty who moderate these Honor Society chapters, Mrs. Benini, our Art teacher, Mrs. Peek our middle school ELA teacher, Mrs. Beth Riecks, our middle school Science teacher both of whom moderate the NJHS chapter, and Mrs. Heather Swartzentruber, our Music teacher.

I would like to recognize the members of our National Junior Art Honor Society for their extraordinary talent in all media using a variety of materials and producing superior pieces of Art under Mrs. Benini's instruction.

Recognition of excellence in musical talent and induction into the Tri-M Music Honor Society is given to the following middle school students. Our Music program consists of choral music as well as band. We are very proud of our Drum Line who will lead our Marching Band students in the Dover Annual Christmas Parade. Once again there are academic and service qualifications that must be met prior to induction over and above music ability.

Our NJHS members are strictly held to maintaining academic standards, community service fulfillment, and adherence to discipline policies. Academic probation is instituted should a member receive more than one B on the report card in addition to all other grades of an A. Applications for induction must be approved by the Faculty Council. It has been remarked by one of the FC members that HC requirements for induction are more strict than high school. I make no apologies for that. We laud and recognize the following students of the Alpha and Omega Chapter of the HCS National Junior Honor Society.

It might be a mundane Monday or a tumultuous Tuesday, a wacky Wednesday.... Who knows what any day might bring. Not to worry. I've said it a million times; every day is a good day at Holy Cross!!

It's where the blessings abound.

Looking Sharp. Probably the most identifiable aspect of Our Lady of Guadalupe is that beautiful, glorious image of her that is so very famous. The original image is still around and enshrined in Mexico. And you know what? Much like Ginsu Knives advertised on TV infomercials, the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe has never dulled or faded. As a matter of fact, in defiance of science and age, the image of Our Lady on that cloak has miraculously remained crisp, sharp, and brilliant for over 490 years. The cloak and its image are on display at Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City where it hangs reverently behind the main altar.

Meanwhile at the Vatican. Over the centuries, many of our Pope have expounded on Mary, as Our Lady of Guadalupe, and have expanded the franchise of her honor in this regard. Here are some key dates in the evolution of this important Holy Day.

- Pope Benedict XIV, on May 25, 1754, declared Our Lady of Guadalupe patroness of what was then named New Spain (Spanish Central and Northern America) and approved liturgical texts for the Mass in her honor.
- Pope Leo XIII, on February 8, 1887 authorized the canonical coronation (and now famous) of the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe.
- Pope St. Pius X, in 1910, proclaimed her patron saint of Latin America.
- Pope Pius XI, on July 16, 1935, declared Our Lady of Guadalupe the "Heavenly Patroness of the Philippines" (though in 1942, this was changed to Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, instead).
- Pope Pius XII, in 1945, accorded her the title "Queen of Mexico and Empress of the Americas," and "Patroness of the Americas" in 1946.
- Pope St. John XXIII, in 1961, invoked her as "Mother of the Americas." In his prayer to her, under this title, he said: Hail, Mother of the Americas, Heavenly Missionary of the New World! From the Sanctuary of Tepeyac you have been for more than four centuries the Mother and Teacher of the Faith to the peoples of the Americas. Be also our protection and save us.
- Pope St. John Paul II, on January 22, 1999, reiterated her title of Patroness of the Americas and granted the rank of solemnity in parts of that region. He also added this holy day, worldwide, to the Church Calendar, as an optional memorial outside of the America. He said of Our Lady of Guadalupe, reflecting on place in the history of the Americas: The first missionaries who reached America from lands of eminent Marian tradition taught the rudiments of Christian faith, they also taught love for you, the Mother of Jesus and of all people. And ever since the time that the Indian Juan Diego spoke of the sweet Lady of Tepeyac, you, Mother of Guadalupe, have entered decisively into the Christian life of the people of Mexico. No less has been [Mary's] presence in other places... in [people's] pilgrimage of faith.
- From Pope Benedict. About ten years ago, Pope Benedict XVI expressed the significance of Our Lady of Guadalupe, during a visit to Mexico, by speaking about how Mary made Jesus known to Juan Diego. He said: This was how Our Lady of Guadalupe showed her divine Son to Saint Juan Diego, not as a powerful legendary hero but as the very God of the living, by whom all live, the Creator of persons, of closeness and immediacy, of heaven and earth. At that moment she did what she had done previously at the wedding feast of Cana. Faced with the embarrassment caused by the lack of wine, she told the servants clearly that the path to follow was her Son: "Do whatever he tells you."

During that same visit, he spoke of the effect of devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe on our faith in Christ. He said: Do not forget that true devotion to the Virgin Mary always takes us to Jesus,... [it] proceeds from true faith... To love her means being committed to listening to her Son, to venerate the Guadalupeana means living in accordance with the words of the blessed fruit of her womb.

- From Pope Francis. Last year on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Pope Francis said, regarding Mary, that: [She] wants to meet us, too, as she one day met Juan Diego on the Hill of Tepeyac," Mexico, and "she begs us to allow her to be our mother, to open our lives to her son Jesus and to welcome his message so as to learn to love like him,"

In this Holy Season of Advent in which we prepare for the Birth of our Savior, it is right and just that we pause to remember his Mother, and our Mother, Mary most holy. Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. James Lentini
